IMPR HUMANITARIAN

IMPR as a Humanitarian non-governmental organization based in Turkey, supporting refugees rights, basic needs and requirements of the communities which are under violation of human rights in the time of natural disaster, crisis, conflicts.

IMPR maintains working on national and international level with the principle of transparency, accountability without any discrimination.

URFA COMMUNITY CENTER

IMPR Humanitarian, US State Department's Bureau of Population, Refugees and Migration (BPRM) with the cooperation of DRC (Danish Refugee Council) is organizing various activities with Syrians and local community at Urfa Community Center since its opening, September 2013. We are inviting local citizens and all of Syrians to participate in our organized inter cultural activities, local activities, common courses, consultancy services and children playground.

As Urfa Community Center, we determine the activities according to the needs of Syrians and their guidance and we are inviting you to join us while deciding together.

At Urfa Community Center, we are organizing activities at the first place for children and women, individual and all family members who are our future as well as are affected from crisis. In this sense we are organizing activities of psychological support, playing together, movie shows, and children playing garden. At the same time, it provides consultancy support and guidance to the institutions and services of non governmental organizations which (they) welcome basic needs and necessities. At the same time, we have referral services for beneficiary who are in need to other ngos and institutions which which (they) welcome basic needs and necessities.
